DECISION AND ORDER

The commission ordered JOHNSON QUYEN DO ("Respondent") to appear at 465 South King Street, Room B3, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813, at 9:00 a.m., on November 26, 2003 to show cause why Respondent's certificate of public convenience and necessity ("CPCN") number ("No.") 1616-C should not be suspended or revoked for failure to pay penalties and interest of $200.29 that the commission assessed, pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS") § 271-27(i) and Hawaii Administrative Rules ("HAR") §§ 6-62-24(b), 6-62-24(c), and 6-62-42(d), for Respondent's untimely annual financial report filing and annual motor carrier gross revenue fee payment.¹ The commission notified Respondent

¹The commission notified Respondent of the November 26, 2003 hearing by serving Order No. 20503 upon Respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, at Respondent's last known address, or to Respondent's attorney. Pursuant to HAR § 6-61-21, service is deemed complete upon properly stamping, addressing, and mailing the order to Respondent's last known address, or to that its CPCN would be revoked if it failed to appear at the scheduled hearing.

On November 26, 2003, Respondent failed to appear before the commission's hearings officer. As a result, the hearings officer recommended that the commission render the following findings and conclusions: (1) Respondent be found in default for failure to appear at the hearing and (2) Respondent's CPCN be revoked.

Based on the above, the commission finds that Respondent's failure to appear at the November 26, 2003 hearing constitutes a default in accordance with HAR § 6-68-23. Accordingly, because the commission can assume the facts alleged in Order No. 20503 are true in the event of a default, and such facts are in violation of applicable laws, rules, and regulations noted above, the commission concludes that Respondent's CPCN should be revoked.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS that CPCN No. 1616-C is revoked.

Respondent's attorney. Additionally, pursuant to HRS § 91-9.5, the commission provided Respondent with notice of the hearing via statewide publication in newspapers of general circulation on November 3 and November 10, 2003.

DONE at Honolulu, Hawaii this 21st day of July, 2004.
